DECENTRALIZATION OF EDUCATION TEACHER MANAGEMENT (PAPERBACK)

World Bank Publications, United States, 1998. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. As part of education and public sector reforms, many countries are decentralizing the financing and administration of education services to regional, local, or school levels. This report explores what can be learned in decentralizing teacher management from international experience. In particular, it examines what has prompted governments to decentralize teacher management functions, how they have done so, and which decentralization mechanisms have been most effective....
