It is one of my personal favorite books. It is one of the most incredible ebooks I have ever read. You will not feel monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you ask me).

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.After graduation, former boyfriends Nathaniel Tobbs and Napoleon Tanner keep away from each other as they get ready for college and new lives. They reunite after a deadly hate attack on a LGBT center in a nearby town threatens to cancel the scheduled prom for queer students to be held during Pride Week. The kids have been looking forward to taking same sex partners, and being able to be themselves in a safe space. Napoleon sees that in spite of the need for mourning and community among older LGBT folks in the wake of deadly violence, that the prom is a crucial event for the students, and that for it to be canceled because of someone's act of hate will only harm the next generation of queer kids and help to keep them invisible and silent. He volunteers to make sure the prom goes on, and with help from their friends Mosunalie Hawthorne and Livitron Goodwell, along with some LGBT kids from the local high schools, Nathaniel and Napoleon spend an afternoon getting the venue prepared for the event. Growing up, Tanner and Tobbs had many adventures involving magic from the hidden dimension where all magic comes from known as The Wizenwhere. Thinking their days of interacting with wizards, dragons, and monsters is behind them, they are both caught completely off guard by the arrival of a new enemy. The Absentor is a shape-shifting creature from a dark land who wants to take love and identity away from the LGBT kids at prom. Before they can protect the students, Nathaniel and Napoleon are taken back in time to the first Gay Liberation March in NYC in 1970, the Los Angeles Pride...
