The deck should be cleansed with hot water, . And quickly dried by rubbing; and great advantage will accrue by shel lacking or painting the decks thoroughly, which will prevent the ah sorption of moisture by the wood, and at the same time render the cleansing more speedy and effectual. An apartm ent should be specially set apart for the ablutions of the crew, and this is best located on the lower deck, where hot water may be attainable. Bathing should be made compulsory at least once in two weeks. The clothing of the crew should be washed at stated intervals, once in ten days or two weeks, in the room appropriated for the purpose, and under no circumstances should this work be allowed on the living deck, to supply additional moisture. The bedding may be aired once a month. The men should be provided with a comfortable water-closet, which may be..
