

Insel (Neversink)

By Loy, Mina

Melville House, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "What is remarkable is that, for all the slipperiness of the novel's prose, the characters and their concrete world come through. The truly wonderful force in Loy's novel, the subject worthy of our fascination, is Mrs. Jones's fascination itself." -- Wall Street Journal "Much of Mina Loy's Insel is as slippery and effervescent as the novel's downtrodden Bohemian martyr and title star. The novel challenges the restrictions of literary expectations, infusing prose with poetry, surrealism with modernism." -- Bookslut "Mina Loy's neglected modernist novel now gets a second outing from Melville House with a new ending unearthed from the archives. Intriguing, fervent. her target is . an image of a patriarchal and disengaged avant-garde that has let the 'present actuality go hang.'" -- Times Literary Supplement "Refreshing, challenging, and brilliant. Insel's republication, which includes a thoughtful and contextualizing introduction, afterword, and appendices, marks another occasion: to remark on Loy's indisputable relevance to literary history, and literature's futures." -- Feministing Praise for Mina Loy "[In The Lost Lunar Baedeker,] Mina Loy's wry, confident inquiries into the nature of men, women and sexuality are a...
