

Junkers Ju52 (Hardback)

By Robert Forsyth, Eddie J. Creek

Crecy Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 314 x 236 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. As with the other recent books in this series, this Classic study of the Ju 52 offers the most definitive account published in recent years of this bulwark of the Luftwaffe, which first saw military service in the 1930s and was then engaged in operations in the Spanish Civil War through the end of World War II. The all-metal, three engine Ju 52/3m enjoyed a solid reputation among its crews and the troops and paratroops who used it and depended on it. It is a machine synonymous with the images of the German attacks on Holland and France in 1940 and Crete in 1941 when hundred of Tante Jus were used to drop paratroopers to successfully capture key tactical and strategic areas. The full history, however, goes back much further. Built as a passenger aircraft for Deutsche Lufthansa, the Ju 52 ranges as far as South Africa, Mozambique, India and Latin America, as well being operated by several other European countries such as Belgium, Equador, Peru and Uruguay. Britain operated several Ju 52s. The aircraft was first blooded in the Spanish...
