

They Raped Me Once Over And Over Again

By Ms. Jacqueline Charmane

The JC Collection. Paperback. Condition: New. 218 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. A True Story A horrifying scream or plea from outside your window or door may make you wonder, Is that distress call for help from a woman being raped It very well could be. Still, what about the cries that are not heard because they are not audible to the naked ear Sexual abuse is an act that occurs not only behind a bush, in a dark alley, or on a deserted street, but it can also happen right in what you might consider a safe environment, such as a home. That was where it happened to me. I was raped in someones home. I didnt scream or plea for help on the outside. For 10 years, on the inside, I silently cried rivers of water. I screamed for help but no one could hear my inner pleas so that they could come to my rescue. Day after day, my life began to change from a young woman who possessed courage, determination, success, power, and money to someone I never knewweak, vulnerable, and dying daily. My journey to death started with a two minute cowardly act called...
