Ancient Irish tales tell of people falling through the mist to another world, but this is not an ancient tale. Raimi is plucked from our world, transported to Aais he must first come to terms with what has happened. The Cull, a druid like religion, take him in their charge and seek to aid him in understanding, but such things might be mute as a darkness encroaches on the land, a darkness that might be the cause or the reason behind his abduction. With the nations, races and religions of Aais reacting to this threat Raimi must travel to the capital of the land he is in to find answers, a journey that is far from dull. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
