Cobra Cobra LLC, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Cataclysm often receives no introduction. Habitually lacking a foreboding sign, a disastrous incident can strike without warning catching everyone in its path off-guard. Although people are aware of countless life-ending threats that occur with vicious intent and devoid of notice, folks live their lives expecting bliss. And why not, widespread annihilation is rare? Moreover, a free society cannot thrive if too many people live in fear of a premature and unnatural death, imagining demise at every turn. For this reason that potential is ignored and our country's leadership expects us to, otherwise quality life would cease long before an episode of physical downfall. On the other hand, should an indication of pending tragedy present itself, do you shout it out? Well, if it's an unconfirmed hunch maybe not. but a series of tangible and chronic hazards would reasonably present a different reaction. But then, another deterrent arises. People have cried wolf so many times that our rationale is sedated, often to the point of insensitivity. In addition, honest complainers can be branded as crazy and for little reason. This...
