Brand New Book. Excerpt from The African Slave Trade: The Secret Purpose of the Insurgents to Revive It; No Treaty Stipulations Against the Slave Trade to Be Entered Into With the European Powers I say this oligarchy, for it is known that the men who concocted, and who do now control the thing they call the Southern Confederacy, are not as numerous, in point of fact, as the figures on a chess-board. It is eminently a close corporation, and was so intended to be. The men who compose it are, for the most part, the same clique well known for years in this city as claiming exclusive jurisdiction over the Democratic party, and as assuming such absolute authority over the South, that even now a great many people suppose there are no other persons of consequence in that part of the country. The late Mr. Douglas, the great leader of the Northern Democracy, understood them thoroughly, and ceased not until the close of his life to make war upon them. There...
