COPING WITH CHLOE (PAPERBACK)

Phoenix Yard Books, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Anna and Chloe are twins. They share everything. Even Chloe s terrible accident hasn t split them apart. But Anna is beginning to realise that being inseparable isn t always easy. Especially when no one else seems to understand that Chloe isn t really gone; no one apart from the dashing Joe that is. - REVIEWS - I loved this book. I read it in two sittings as I was so keen to keep racing on to the end. Beautifully written. Emotional and moving, but real as well. It s hard to say too much without giving the whole thing away, but I loved the fact that the author doesn t definitively say that there is or isn t something a bit out of the ordinary going on. I d recommend Coping with Chloe for tweens and young teens, and certainly for anyone going through the issues raised in the book. -- Liz Kessler, AUTHOR. Such an unusual piece - and in the end I felt it was dead-on psychologically. It s a superb book. Once I got about 10 pages in, I couldn t put it down. I hope it receives the acclaim it deserves. -- Donna Jo Napoli, CHILDREN S AUTHOR. A beautifully written YA novel about coping with the death of a twin. I was fighting off tears at about six different points in this book despite it being reasonably short at around 200 pages. Warren captures the desolation of a child after a sibling s...
