By Sarah James

Seahorse publications, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Would she have done the same for me? When Luka was eleven years old, his mother gave birth to the baby girl she d always wanted. After that, no matter how much his mum told him she loved him, Luka was convinced she loved his sister more. When Luka s sister is three, his mother makes the ultimate sacrifice and gives her life in a useless attempt to protect her daughter. Luka is wracked with grief and haunted by the question, Would she have done the same for me? In the days after the bomb blast that tears Luka s mum and sister away, Luka s family begins to fall apart. His dad retreats to his bedroom, his brother slips into vigilante mode, and his uncle tries to rescue them all, when all they really want is to be left alone. Luka, who has always been a peacemaker, tries desperately to hold what s left of his family together, but finds he s teetering on the edge himself, struggling to do much more than keep his own demons of guilt and...
