Excerpt from The Tariff; Revenue for the Government, and Protection for All: Speech of Hon. William A. Russell, of Massachusetts, in the House of Representatives, April 16, 1884 The House being in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union., and having under consideration the bill (H. R. 5893) to reduce import duties and war-tariff taxes - Mr. Russell said: Mr. Chairman: By the action of the Ways and Means Committee in reporting to the House the Morrison bill, so called, and now by the action of the House itself, we are again plunged into uncertainty and distress. The appointment of a commission and the consideration and revision of the tariff laws in the last Congress held the business of the country in suspense for a full year. The work of the commission and the action of the Forty-seventh Congress in the passage of the tariff act of March 3, 1883, restored confidence in the business community, and the ax in the...
