Ukrainian Canadians represent an integral part of the Canadian mosaic and are noted for their hard work; their loyalty to Her Majesty: The Crown ; and their steadfast faithfulness to a Christian God, while at the same time maintaining their roots and traditions. It was by the sweat of their brows that the earliest of the pioneer families who first arrived and settled in 1891 on the Western Canadian Prairies, then the NW Territories, and began to build their lives, families, churches and develop what are now the three Prairie Provinces of Canada, namely, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Some of these Pioneers made their way to our District via the steel mills of Pittsburgh. One such family was the Author s Polish Great Grandfather who tooled up a blacksmith shop at his farmstead. The grandfathers came directly from the Ternopil District, Galicia, Austria-Hungary and started at zero. Some of the second generation were able to attend College came to educate the third generation. Money was sparse during the Great Depression, with few of the second generation progressing through secondary schooling; most through marriage with...
