Reviews

This written publication is wonderful. It can be written in straightforward phrases instead of confusing. I discovered this pdf from my dad and I suggested this publication to learn.

NEW ENGLAND MAGAZINE, VOL. 43: AN ILLUSTRATE MONTHLY; SEPTEMBER, 1910 FEBRUARY, 1910 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from New England Magazine, Vol. 43: An Illustrate Monthly; September, 1910 February, 1910 Its larger work, I say. The useful and varied work already done in these years, preliminary to the broader plans, must not be forgotten, for it has been well considered, significant, and very necessary work. It was about ten years ago that Mr. Ginn s contributions for peace work began. I remember that in 1904, the year of the International Peace Congress in Boston, he gave for that work; and from that time to this he has been giving liberally, latterly, from to $10,000a year, for the cause. I think that it was at the Boston Congress that he first outlined his plans in a general way. He did it again at the International Congress at Lucerne, the next year; and he did it at the National Congresses in New York and Chicago in 1907 and 1909. It was always essentially the same old speech, as Dr. Hale used to say of a certain speech of his which he repeated until people remembered it; because his message was a simple and an urgent One - that the peace movement must be better organized and better financed.
