It is national, and has erased all sectional lines. The old Mason and Dixon s Line has been obliterated in the expression of a new national sentiment centered in the people s love for the memory of Lincoln, who belongs alike to the North and South, the East and the West. The Grand Army of the Republic has issued a special order calling upon every post to properly celebrate the day, through cooperation with some other organization or independently. Their camp-fires burn everywhere. The Governor of every State in the Union has appointed a special centenary committee to represent each State, respectively, in the national celebration that...
