Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this book we look at the history of the South African Nuclear Weapons Program, long denied but always winked about, an open secret to many although the details were always vague with much rumours of Israeli assistance in designing the bombs. In fact, the Israeli input was negligible, and the South African nuclear weapons worked in an entirely unique way, yielding about what the Hiroshima bomb did and considered sufficient as a deterrent against a Soviet Union originated and supported conventional attack. This attack almost came to be in 1988 - 1989 via Angola into what was then South West Africa and today Namibia. Masses of conventional forces were gathered, and plans were made - in history the same as the attack on South Vietnam by North Vietnamese Forces the decade before. History always repeats. A brilliant South African Maskirovka from the Chief of Staff in Pretoria stopped the planned invasion as well as the very public mobilising orders for 400,000 men from the Army Reserves. South Africa also had the means to deliver nuclear bombs accurately, all discussed in this book and may have done so, we don t know. It is one of the big ifs in history. As said, the invasion never took place and in no small way due to the Battle of Cuito Cuanavale of which we often write in GMJ Books, the largest tank battle in Africa since the Second World War and one which South African Forces won hands down. However, it is beyond maddening to the author that no Western Expert today knows that South Africa once produced working nuclear weapons back in 1978. They just don t know, or they forgot history,...
