

Messages from a Lost World: Europe on the Brink (Paperback)

By Stefan Zweig

PUSHKIN PRESS, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. As Europe faced its darkest days, Stefan Zweig was a passionate voice for tolerance, peace and a world without borders. In these moving, ardent essays, speeches and articles, composed before and during the Second World War, one of the twentieth century's greatest writers mounts a defence of European unity against terror and brutality. These haunting lost messages, all appearing in English for the first time and some newly discovered, distil Zweig's courage, belief and richness of learning to give the essence of a writer; a spiritual will and testament to stand alongside his memoir, The World of Yesterday. Brief and yet intense, they are a tragic reminder of a world lost to the bloody vortex of history, but also a powerful statement of one man's belief in the creative imagination and the potential of humanity, with a resounding relevance today. At a time of monetary crisis and political disorder, of mounting border controls and barbed-wire fences, Zweig's celebration of the brotherhood of peoples reminds us that there is another way. The Nation One of liberalism's greatest defenders New Republic...
