

Things Your Grammar Shoulda Told YA (Paperback)

By Howard Fields

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For a century, the Bible of all good writers, and those aspiring to be, has been The Elements of Style, first authored in 1918 by pedantic Prof. William Strunk, Jr., who later was joined by the highly entertaining writer, E.B. White, Strunk's former student famous for his articles in The New Yorker literary magazine. Strunk re-published the book in 1935 with Edward Tenney as co-author. Strunk died in 1946 and White took over the book, adding his entertaining style to it for the second edition in 1959. Another edition was published in 1972, but White died in 1985. The book, small enough to fit in a hip pocket, became better known as Strunk White. The Elements of Style remained untouched until 1999 when the fourth edition was published largely as a text book and changed somewhat to make it more politically correct. As an example, the pre-feminist movement references to indefinite pronouns in the masculine form unless the feminine is obvious. In 2005, illustrations were added. But, none of the Strunk Whites addresses today's writing and speaking and all the...
