By Henry H Williamson Jr

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The title of this book expresses the theme, Bridge to Success: A Parent's Problem Prevention Guide. In other words, you will avoid problems many other parents must endure in their parent/child relationship. It relates to how you, the parent, can produce a foundation that will catapult your child from dependence on someone else, toward the undeniable joy and wealth of independence. The primary key in molding your child is to keep your message simple, at the same time, promote the idea that life is a barrel of fun. First of all, we believe everything in existence begins with thought; however, in the life of each of us, nothing happens until we transfer thoughts into action. With that in mind, we want to clarify the fact that we believe the family is the lifeblood of a dynamic society, that's why we pay homage to the family in chapter five titled RAM Time. Having said that, we want to make it clear that this book is a two-part affair: since the parent is the fulcrum of any successful and joyous...
