Excerpt: . . . is, however, a sum of 3, 398 rupees in the hands of Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co. at Madras, being the part not yet expended of the donation of 6, 000 rupees granted last year by the Calcutta Auxiliary Bible Society. At the conclusion of the last Report, your Committee offered their congratulations to their constituents on the prospect of being enabled at no remote period to publish a complete translation of the Singhalese Scriptures. They have now the greatest satisfaction in stating, that the expectations they then held out have not been disappointed; and that there is every reason to believe that the ensuing year will witness the realization of their hopes. What may next become the object of their attention, will be matter for future consideration. More numerous impressions both of the Old and New Testaments will doubtless ere long be required. But by the publication of the whole Scriptures the principal difficulty will be overcome; and the duty of multiplying editions to meet the utmost demand of the Singhalese population will be an easy and a grateful task. sura: , Sept. 2, 1822-. As it always affords pleasure to the friends of the Bible to hear of its circulation among the ignorant, I conceive you will be glad to learn that the Gujurattee Scriptures are eagerly sought after in this place. The second of last month being cocoa-nut day, viz. the anniversary of presenting offerings of cocoa-nuts to the God of the Waters,...
