Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you a Christian, or even religious? Is having faith a comfort-do you believe in God? Good, because He is about to shock you right down to your sandals! And He ll do so with a new book titled, Jesus Is Alive and Appearing Everywhere But Camden. It s the story of God s Son Jesus Christ returning to earth in very human form several times over the past 20 years. What happens to Jesus and His apostles as they travel around America in these harsh modern times follows the overall plot of the original Gospels with dazzling truth; they ve landed in the U.S., the most spiritually bankrupt place on the globe, and their reception in these godless times is about what they expected. But the new Jesus is not the passive, laid-back itinerant preacher from the old New Testament; this Christ is testy, leathery tough, and, from His enemies opening salvos, He s arrived ready to rumble in order to present and spread His updated message of faith. This Messiah is the Rocky Marciano of Supreme Beings. Early in the book, on God s instruction, He chooses the perfect steno to dutifully record His latest adventures, mishaps, ministry and betrayals. Rick, the scribe , is a fanatic Biblical scholar and devoted agnostic , so he s totally objective and honest; his pointblank rendering of this new Gospel is peppered with quotes and parallel fables from actual Scripture told with astonishing accuracy and ingenious updating of the original to current times. Believers and non-believers alike will be running to the Bible to compare and contrast the two. In vividly rendered scenes , this Gospel of ideas is a worthy conveyor of...
