If we turn our eyes for a moment to poor unhappy Africa, we shall find that almost the whole of that continent may justly be said to be hermetically sealed against missionary efforts by this system, which, while it tears from its shores annually upwards of 100, 000 victims, either to die amid all the horrors of the middle passage, or in hopeless unmitigated toil and bondage, is supposed to destroy two or three times that number in the internal wars fomented to the very heart of the Continent, and the march of the slaves to the coast, to supply the white mans slave ships from the Christian country. What opinion, I would ask (were we Africans), should we form of such Christians as these Can we wonder that, instead of receiving them as the messengers of peace and glad tidings, they should consider them as cannibals,...
