She is a fine little steamer, father, without the possibility of a doubt, said Lieutenant Passford, who was seated at the table with his father in the captain s cabin on board of the Bronx. I don t feel quite at home here, and I don t quite like the idea of being taken out of the Bellevite. You are not going to sea for the fun of it, my son, replied Captain Passford. You are not setting out on a yachting excursion, but on the most serious business in the world. I know and feel all that, father, but I have spent so many pleasant days, hours, weeks, and months on board of the Bellevite, that I am very sorry to leave her, added Christy Passford, who had put on his new uniform, which was that of master in the United States Navy; and he was as becoming to the uniform as the uniform was to him. You cannot well help having some regrets at leaving the Bellevite; but you must remember that your life on board of her was mostly...
