Brand New Book  Print on Demand . 2 healthy children, dropped off at non-custodial parent residence for a court ordered visit with dad and grandma. Only 10 and 7. Child due back Sunday 7 p.m., but never returned til years later. By then, the damage was done. CPS usually will get away with it. This time, the agency worker has met the wrong parent. Lawsuit wins the right, in FEDERAL court to move forward for civil right damages while family acted as their own attorney known as pro-se self file. Losing a child is the worse feeling, she told a reporter, several, airing her story multiple times. To know a state government employee was behind the actual harm to me, my daughter s is inexcusable, as experts agree. Hence, a federal magistrate (2) allowed and approve her civil rights lawsuit for $50million in damages to move forward, even when (earlier) so many OSA. (old school attorneys) indolent, try to say you re not able to sue a gov t worker/state employee, but she knew better. Now she is lauded by the same lawyers, for her family recent decision winning such significant right with her suit...
