Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This novel is a tribute to some of the most frightening legends that have accompanied us over time, maybe when from child we gathered for telling stories handed down from grandparents, relatives and kin, often terrifying, especially when it comes to events really happened. One of these concerns the hitchhiker ghost, come on, everyone knows this story, and especially everyone think that this terrifying story that has happened in their city, according to this legend a girl asks a ride to a stranger then forgetting his jacket in the car and the man in order to bring it back discovers that the girl died long before. Yes, it happened right in your hometown, if you live in Davis, California and you have heard of a certain Lilith, maybe you also know Brad, a man sad, left by his wife for a surgeon in Seattle, who has brought with her two daughter, thus destroying the entire world of the poor man. All this until he meets by chance the beautiful Lilith, which after being accompanied home, unfortunately forgets her jacket in the car, bringing the man to believe that she wanted to meet him again, awakening a passion to just feel the intoxicating scent emanating from that garment, hence the name Lilith s scent, but all things will not be second the legend mentioned above. The second story in this novel is titled Maleventum which is the ancient name of the city of Benevento, in Campania, in this places lives a very ancient legend about the witches. This story, for over a thousand years, was handed down between the fears of the locals even to appoint these priestesses. The...
