MediaWriting: Print, Broadcast, and Public Relations

By Ronald D. Smith

Routledge. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 400 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 7.3in. x 1.0in. MediaWriting is an introductory, hands-on textbook for students preparing to write in the current multimedia environment. Rather than just talk about the differences among the styles of print, broadcast, and public relations, MediaWriting synthesizes and integrates them, while weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and social media reporting. Complete with real-world examples, practical writing exercises, and tips and information for entering into the profession, MediaWriting continues to give students the tools they need to become a successful media writer. The new edition has been extensively rewritten to reflect the dynamic nature of the profession, paying significant attention to how the Internet and social media have become essential communication tools for print and broadcast journalists, and public relations professionals. Further updates and features include: Increased attention to computer-assisted reporting, the preparation of online copy, and social media applications Two new chapters on lead writing and new new media A separate chapter focused solely on ethics Explanatory how-to boxes that help students understand and retain main themes Illustrative It Happened to Me vignettes from the authors professional experiences Discussion questions and exercises at the end of every...
