Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A Letter to the Church in America takes a critical look at the problems and obstacles facing the modern church in the USA. It also provides some solutions and alternatives to the current paths it is taking. Many denominations are losing members in significant numbers. There is a reason for this. In its attempt to attract the world into its four walls, the churches in America have become more like the world they are trying to influence. The chapters in this book attempt to identify and offer suggestions to correct this dilemma. This book is written for pastors, church leaders, and lay people alike. Although every chapter will not apply to every church, it offers an inventory that provides a comprehensive look at what is hindering their progress. I have also authored a 31-day Bible devotional entitled Did Jesus Really Say That? This study deals with the more difficult and least understood teachings and sayings of Christ.
