

Bolton-le-Sands: Portrait of a Village (Paperback)

By Barry Guise, Lesley Guise, Keith Budden

Carnegie Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This attractive book tells the fascinating story of Bolton-le-Sands in a unique and very human way. Using a variety of illustration, including postcards sent from the village by both locals and visitors, the authors paint a portrait of a thriving, close-knit community and popular holiday destination. What emerges from this special selection is a wonderfully intimate and revealing pictorial social history that totally engages the reader. With a brief introductory history and richly informative captions this book is a must for everyone with an interest in the ancient settlement of Bodeltone.
