THE LYCAN CHRONICLES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand *****.

The Lycan Chronicles A small, secluded town in Southern Indiana holds many dark and sinister secrets. Formed and financed by the ruling class of Vampires wishing to expand their covenant into the New World, this peculiar town was established in 1840, and it remained peaceful for over 160 years. Not a single unnatural human death had occurred among the many that were employed there in order to satisfy the Vampire s never ending thirst for blood. welcome to Wolf Creek. Before the inception of this otherworldly place, the Vampires were the hunted in the new America. In desperate need of protection, they reached out to the supernatural creatures of the Native American legends.the shape shifting Lycans. Employed as peace keepers and guardians, the Lycans and Vampires were able to co-exist in harmony and normality, escaping the persecution of the outside world that surrounded them. The human volunteers were compensated generously for their participation, required only to give a weekly donation of blood to the town s Blood Bank. Life was wonderful for all of the town s inhabitants, until 1947 when an ancient Vampire history book was uncovered along with the Dead Sea Scrollsthe Book of Blood. This mysterious book contained a sought-after formula that would allow the Vampires to walk freely in the sunlight. Sunlife. Under the direct orders of the Original Vampire of England, Baron Valvasor, hand selected Vampires would work for decades in futile attempt to decode the secrets lying within the book s pages and bring the Vampire s ultimate dream alive.that is until the day a recruited computer hacker and talented chemist cracked the code, finally producing the coveted potion. With the Book of Blood now...
