Kensington Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Only a woman with an iron backbone could succeed as an undertaker in Victorian London, but Violet Morgan takes great pride in her trade. While her husband, Graham, is preoccupied with elevating their station in society, Violet is cultivating a sterling reputation for Morgan Undertaking. She is empathetic, well-versed in funeral fashions, and comfortable with death's role in life--until its chilling rattle comes knocking on her own front door. Violet's peculiar but happy life soon begins to unravel as Graham becomes obsessed with his own demons and all but abandons her as he plans a vengeful scheme. And the solace she's always found in her work evaporates like a departing soul when she suspects that some of the deceased she's dressed have been murdered. When Graham's plotting leads to his disappearance, Violet takes full control of the business and is commissioned for an undertaking of royal proportions. But she's certain there's a killer lurking in the London fog, and the next funeral may be her own. Equal parts courage, compassion, and intrigue, Christine Trent tells an unrestrained tale of love and loss in the rigidly decorous world of Victorian society. Praise for the novels of Christine Trent: Genuinely engrossing. . .with a rare Regency heroine who loves her work and does it well. Publishers Weekly on By the King's Design: Exuberant, sparkling, beguiling. . .brims with Dickensian gusto! --Barbara Kyle, author of The Queen's Lady on The Queen's Dollmaker: Winningly original. . .glittering with atmospheric detail! --Leslie Carroll, author of Royal Affairs on The Queen's Dollmaker.
