Excerpt from Leaders of the Church 1800-1900: Dr. Pusey IT seems expedient that the origin and scope of this new Series of Biographies should be briefly explained. Messrs. A. R. Mowbray and Co. Had formed the opinion that Ecclesiastical Biography is apt to lose in attractiveness and interest, by reason of the technical and professional spirit in which it is generally handled. Acting on this opinion, they resolved to publish some short Lives of Leaders of the Modern Church, written exclusively by laymen. They conceived that a certain freshness might thus be imparted to subjects already more or less familiar, and that a class of readers, who are repelled by the details of ecclesiasticism, might be attracted by a more human, and in some sense a more secular, treatment of religious lives.
