The children are not just * a vassal of the world. they are the real consumers. and they may have greater market potential than any other market segment. Only by allowing more children and family satisfaction. the enterprise will get more profit. The order here is critical: First of all. let more children satisfied. then the enterprises to get more profit. The result of this is on the market there will be more and better children's products and services. businesses will be better to treat children (because the children satisfaction is the most basic of all marketing activities). Our efforts in this book how children...
