Jazzmina has crushed on Khalil since she was a teenager. He s always been everything she wanted in the man she would give her heart to. But, since they grew up more like family.her being the niece to Khalil s mentor, it wasn t anything that she could act on. However, when tragedy strikes, these two are thrown together when Khalil becomes the only person that Jazzmina has to lean on. Jazzmina didn t know that while she was in Oakland making a pit stop on her way back from college that her uncle Derrick was laying on the side of the freeway murdered. Derrick DJ Jackson had been ambushed by motorcycle assassins en route to his house. When news of DJ s death finds its way to his loved ones, vengeance is on the mind of not just Jazzmina, but DJ s right-hand man, Khalil. Khalil and Jazz have always had an attraction to one another, but since they were considered to be family, that line had never been crossed.until now. With the tragic circumstances surrounding DJ s, Jazz and Khalil are brought closer together, and the opportunity to act on trapped desires, presents itself. But what happens when another murder occurs and the puzzle begins to become more complex? Jazz, feeling as though the police aren t working fast enough, and that Khalil is keeping information close to the chest, she decides to take matters into her own hands. In the process, she not only puts herself in grave danger, but she risks losing the trust of the man that she s loved since she was sixteen. Khalil has his own ideas of who committed the crimes and has...
