TEAPOTS AND ATTICS: ILL NEVER LET GO

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 238 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Jade finding herself back in the one place she has been running from her whole life, the attic, and with the thought of no escape and no one coming to help her. Jade takes deadly drastic measures. Will the man who since walking into her life has done nothing but save her manage to get to her in time, as he usually does? Will Ruben be able to save Jade from the attic before it is too late? In a night full of action, near shootings and brawls, Ruben is left on a periphery trying to balance what is most important. Jade's family and friends will do anything to help her recover from being put back in the attic. With Jade's box smashed to pieces, everything triggers Jade's traumatic memories. Jade admits to Ruben that some of the worst things that happened to her did not happen in the attic. Jade's harrowing and disturbing past leads Ruben down a path of fury, vengeance and revenge, which leaves his whole family and Jade in danger yet again. After months of trying to deal with what happened to Jade when she was young and growing up, she realises that there is no escaping what happened to her or the attic. She learns to cope with things in a healthier way but it still haunts her dreams. Nightmares torment Jade and Ruben has to witness the toll it takes on her. Even though Jade is still dealing with her past, she has never been happier. She is with the man of her dreams, her soul mate and saviour. Jade has friends and family who she completely trusts and she has a blossoming career. Jade reaches...
