By Jessica D Reed

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The first gift Amber received in her first birthday was a dream catcher. Her father hanged that dream catcher in the window of her room so that whenever there was a wind, she would hear the melody that helped her to sleep and that brings her the best dreams ever. He wanted to give her a perfect life with her mother and family. Everything fell apart in just one instance and Amber found herself saying a final good bye to her family when the tunnel collapsed on their car on her birthday leaving her in a deep sorrow and agony. It was shocking for her to see her father s face covered with blood and her birthday turned out to be a funeral. Therefore, she transformed from a girl who loved to laugh and to play to a melancholic person who smelled death wherever she went. The only person left was a little sister who needed a heart transplantation as soon as possible but the troubles were following Amber wherever she went even on high ways when her love to...
