J. H. Bransby. In compiling the following Companion, the principal aim of the Writer has been to give a well-digested, condensed, and faithful description of the leading features of interest on the borders of Cambria, presented in a form at once portable and convenient to the Stranger, who leaves the busy scenes of life, and the constant care of business, for a few days ramble among the hills and valleys of the Principality. He has endeavoured to arrange his information so that every object worthy of notice...
