Brand New Book. Excerpt from Modern Eloquence, Vol. 13: Political Oratory; Dep-Lee The medium through which the orator moves out upon the hearts of men in power received the supreme recognition of its distinction when the inspired apostle said, as his primary utterance, In the beginning was the Word. Jesus Christ, the one complete expression of God s thought, was the Logos, the Word! The choice of the term was no accident. Insight more profound is shown nowhere in the gospels. The apostle discerned that spirit and expression are inseparable; that spirit must of necessity express itself in t/ze beginning was t/ze Word. Each thought of God, from the beginning, has found its expression in some form. But when John calls the supreme manifestation Of the spirit the Word, he sets the seal upon the sovereignty of word language as the most natural if not the highest form of human expression.
