ANAGRAMA, 2009. Condition: Nuevo. Este breve libro, que tan poderoso impacto causó en Francia, reúne los textos de dos emisiones televisivas realizadas en el Collège de France. En ellas, Pierre Bourdieu presenta los logros de su investigación sobre la televisión. La primera desmonta los mecanismos de la censura invisible que se ejerce sobre la pequeña pantalla. La segunda explica cómo la televisión ha alterado profundamente el funcionamiento de universos tan diferentes como los del arte, de la filosofía o de la política, e incluso de la justicia y de la ciencia; y ello produciendo en estos campos la lógica de los índices de audiencia, es decir del sometimiento demagógico a los requisitos del plebiscito comercial. Por indicación del autor se han añadido a la edición española dos textos y un posfacio. En palabras de Bourdieu: «Para mí, el mensaje más importante de este libro era una llamada a la constitución de un movimiento en favor de un periodismo cívico y crítico».
