

Verbally Abusive Relationships: No More Suffering! a How to Prevent Save Guide. (Paperback)

By Emma Gertony

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Domestic abuse is a term that is familiar to most. Another term commonly used in the same context is couples violence. This term lends a strong connotation to physical abuse, which is a very serious form of abuse but is not the only kind. Another equally important kind of abuse is emotional abuse, which includes verbal abuse. Emotional abuse is when one or both partners treat the other in emotionally damaging, neglectful, controlling, or manipulative ways. While some may make an effort to diminish its significance, emotional abuse is a real and very serious type of abuse. Victims of emotional abuse often find themselves isolated and hesitant to confide their experiences in other people. A specific area of emotional abuse is verbal abuse. Verbal abuse is not something to be taken lightly. Although many abusers themselves, even high profile ones, try to undermine the severity of this form of abuse, it cannot be undermined. Various studies in recent years have highlighted and proven the fact that verbal abuse produces the same psychological effects, sometimes worse and longer lasting effects, as physical abuse....
