The Doll is the story of an artist who made life like faces for life like love dolls in Japan. When he finds out that the house that he bought and repaired used to be the property of witches, things became rather interesting. One of the faces that he had made came alive and wanted a body to go along with it. Complying with the spirit s demands a body is ordered and promptly comes alive only to provide more havoc for the poor artist caught up in the middle of magic spells and the sudden pregnancy of two neighbor women who he knew only from the supermarket and never dated! The unraveling of this witch s world of magic spells is what the story is all about.
