ALLISON BUSBY, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Autumn, 1962. The market town of Everham in Hampshire is bubbling with rumours. Dr Leigh McDowall is after a woman who doesn't return his affections. In fact, Shelagh Hammond is helplessly infatuated with another doctor. But she's also busy caring for her mother Bridget who has a secret of her own. Meanwhile, Reverend Derek Bolt is troubled by the unwanted attentions of a female parishioner and confides in head teacher Jeremy North. But Jeremy's home life is in disarray and feeling lost he turns to a hospital sister for comfort. As their stories intertwine, conflicts erupt into lifechanging decisions and scandals. Set against the back-drop of the Profumo affair that rocked Britain, Everham's own politics reach a dramatic crescendo.
