iUniverse, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A touching compilation of true tales of love vs. hate, sad stories of right vs. wrong that not only intrigue the reader, but also give insight to the dynamics of the author's life as well as the genetics of her family. Her unique perceptions into the dynamics of neural pathways are mentioned as well as captivating significances in old adages and knowing that an old dog can be taught new tricks. This book is aimed at redefining the parameters of disabilities so as to illustrate that all persons are in fact created equal under God. The aim of the book is to illustrate that chromosomes should not be utilized as a formative factor in someone's mentality and just because someone doesn't look or act normal does not make them any less of a person. Disabilities are turned into abilities and the reader is prompted to find an alternative way of viewing reality and reading everyday signs. Readers are impelled to observe how they see the reflection of their own selves in others, especially their own children. Using a play on words as well as biblical reference and personal narration, languages are decoded and brought together in hopes of shedding light on the damaging effects that we as gods (posing as parents, siblings, medical professionals, and friends) have on others as a human race. Sueess hopes that the readers will reconsider their words and their actions and the lasting impact that they have on others and make a positive, constructive change for the better.
