By Ramona Lindsay-Sisler

WestBow Press, United States, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . My Plate is Too Full is a compilation of poems inspired over a span of twenty-one years. They typically fall in to the categories of pure worship, gratefulness, and blessings of family. Most people are often so busy they do not take time alone with God for worship. My Plate is Too Full provides you with an opportunity to pause a few minutes to worship the creator and find strength for the day. It also provides two journals you can use for your personal growth in Christ. You will find these pages filled with things that you can relate to in your walk with the Lord. So grab a cup of coffee or tea, open the pages of this book, and allow God to speak to you for a few minutes. It is your time alone with Jesus-your dessert, the best part of the day!.
