Excerpt: .fairly to the principal Baptist preachers the exact position which he occupied. Being all assembled in a room at Major Davis , where he stayed, he introduced himself fully to their acquaintance in the following manner, as related by himself: Brethren, I fear that if you knew me better you would esteem and love me less. For let me tell you that I have almost as much against you Baptists as I have against the Presbyterians. They err in one thing and you in another; and probably you are each nearly equidistant from original apostolic Christianity. . I paused; and such a silence as ensued, accompanied by a piercing look from all sides of the room, I seldom before witnessed. Elder Vardeman at length broke silence by saying: Well, sir, we want to know our errors or your heterodoxy. Do let us hear it. Keep...
