CODE NAME GREEN 41 (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Here we deal with the interdicting of drug smuggle routes by using Special Forces and secret agents only, no police, no trials, just summary justice as it should be. The question I wanted answered was if hard drugs can be used as a weapon of war. If you could flood an enemy army with drugs, as was done in history, apparently, in Vietnam to the American Army, will you win the war? In more recent times we look at Afghanistan and the poppy fields, would that be a weapon of war and if so, how effective? The answers are thought-provoking to me, our conclusions are studied at various Military Academies. There is a follow up book called Code Name Celery 50 on this one, to complete the story. This where Angelique s troubled agent, the one we call Lucy the Lunatic is first mentioned. She is a counter terrorism agent that was captured by a war lord and escaped, only to be rescued again by Angelique from the place of safety and returned to duty perhaps too soon, but for her own sanity. In this book, she is almost executed by Foxtrot when she lost it during operations. I would say, as the author, that in all the GMJ Books there is not one scene more catching than Lucy s colleagues surrounding her to protect her from certain death but you can read it yourself, an act of extreme valour that is acknowledged by those involved. Ours is a harsh world, if captured, you will be made to regret that you were born, especially if female. Every kind of sexual and physical abuse will take place and did take place with Lucy....
