Florece, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The Wet Moment: The brief interlude before an experience dries on memory and is referenced for future use; the moment when anything is possible. Len Chernila A book of possibilizing opportunity, change, personal creativity. Denver s well known Spoken Word artist and Spit-Rock performer shares his work. Inspired by years of social activism and community work, Len Chernila s poetry speaks to the struggles and questions of daily living: poverty, injustice, racism, sexism, love, becoming one s own, freedom. Len s writing challenges many limitations with a powerful voice, yet its open nature allows for personal interpretation and deep connection. This is poetry that digs to the core, the place where people hold themselves back, remain stuck in misperception, self-doubt, clinging to friendship with the dark that keeps us bound. Len challenges readers to stand up against limiting beliefs, to fight their own fight, to break free and soar.
