Life Beyond The Cross: A Closer View into an Eternal Investment (Paperback)

By Akin Isaacs Lufadeju

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Present book portrays God as the Director of a company called Creation Investment Corporation and describes Him as the most successful business person that ever stepped on the planet Earth. It all started by a decision to establish another branch of his company in another location which happened to be the planet earth which at that time was inhabited by a competitor who used to work for Him but things turned sour between them when he plotted to take over the business. To start his new branch off, he started by giving commands to the darkness, waters and winds. These all obeyed him. He appointed managers and empowered them to manage the business while he continued to manage the headquarters. The well being of those managers later became his heartbeat after they were deceived to step out of His laid down policies which eventually caused an economic breakdown and eventually a buy-out for the new branch. This was a distraction for this entrepreneur because he had excellent plans for the branch. This book is all about what He did to take his company...
