Broadway Play Publishing Inc, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It wouldn t be the first time a reckless marriage led straight to hell. Rarely, however, has a spouse--however demonic--turned out to be literally Satan. Which somewhat raises the stakes for three sisters hoping a mysterious suitor will rescue them from desperate financial straits in THE DEVIL S WIFE. Loosely adapted from an ancient Italian folk tale.playwright Tom Jacobson s delightfully creepy new postmodern fable makes an entertaining and thought-provoking debut. .the story [is situated] in an ambiguous but vaguely Spanish-American Gothic setting that stylishly befits Jacobson s whimsical mash-up of fairy-tale tropes and modern sensibilities. As in the original legend, the Prince of Darkness successively woos three sisters in the guise of Nicolas Mastema, a wealthy, suavely seductive lawyer who promises to salvage their endangered family estate if one of them will marry him. The only catch: His bride must never open the door to his cellar, which reportedly offers that which each visitor most desires. Oh, and there s a curious business involving a wooden staff bequeathed by the sisters late father that Nicolas seems way too eager to acquire. THE DEVIL S WIFE is a smart, satisfying thrill ride. Naturally, the temptation to cross the forbidden threshold proves impossible to resist, first for the beautiful but haughtily insecure Bonita, then for the sweet-tempered sexpot, Dulce. It s left to the brainy Sofia to try to outwit Nicolas with a strategy that ultimately pits heaven against hell. Jacobson s signature intelligence and wit are never in short supply, and running a little more than an hour the play elegantly poses an ever-deepening volley of sophisticated theological and philosophical questions. .THE DEVIL S WIFE is a smart, satisfying thrill ride...
