THE DIARIES OF PONTIUS PILATE

Helping Hands Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 260 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. The Diaries of Pontius Pilate opens when a member of an archeological team is murdered along the shores of the Dead Sea. We learn that the murderer and victim are both spies, observing the expedition and grappling with the fact that the team has just discovered some controversial artifacts. In fact, Archeologist Kevin Elliot and his Deputy, Jill Gates have unearthed twenty copper scrolls etched with the results of Pontius Pilates year long criminal investigation into the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. They manage to open one scroll far enough to take a series of digital photographs of the writings and email them to a Professor of Ancient Latin for translation. Unaware of the scrolls content, Kevin and Jill are unprepared when theyre caught between an ancient conspiracy of global power thats determined to destroy the scrolls along with everyone connected to them, and a small, fledgling volunteer group, the only force on earth that stands between Kevin, Jill and certain death. Lewis has written a nail-biting thriller that jumps into action on page 1 and doesnt stop until you reach the back cover. Dont open this book unless youre sitting in a comfortable chair with good reading light, because you wont want to move. - Thom Lemmons, Christy award winning author of Jabez: A Novel, and Blameless. Pontius Pilates diaries . . . would rock the world if discovered today . . . Lewis characters are muscular, violent, dedicated . . . and faithful . . . Good and evil remain at war . . . while an archaeologist possessing Pilates scrolls is hunted down - Denny Bonavita, Editor and Publisher, Courier-Express Tri County Sunday (McLean Publishing Co. - Pennsylvania). Joe Lewis and The Diaries...
