Concerning Letters from the Devils Forest: An Anthology of Writings on Traditional Witchcraft, Spiritual Ecology, and Provenance Traditionalism, the latest published work by Robin Artisson, occultist and writer of some renown. IN THIS latest work, witch, metaphysician, and traditionalist Robin Artisson presents an in-depth and darksome interior vision of many dimensions of the old and nearly forgotten Art of true Witchcraft. Letters from the Devils Forest is a lengthy anthology of Artissons writings regarding every topic of essence and interest to the student or researcher of the half-remembered occult practices of spirit-pacting and spirit-allegiance: the timeless root-practices that underlie the genuine sorcerous traditions of the West. Over 130 chapters, representing public and private writings done by Artisson in the last five years, but drawing on over 20 years of his own practice and in-depth researches, are brought together into one informative tome, to better serve the needs of the modern mystic or malcontent in search of a roadmap to the hidden angles of lifes most seductive mystery: the mystery of sorcery, and the parallel mystery of spiritual ecology. The generous...
